

Do not overturn New Jersey's Do Not Call law. I do not believe that telemarketers have any right to annoy me in my home. There are more than enough ways for them to force themselves on me. It is your job to protect the public airwaves for the public, not for some private company.